

HABERSHAM GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Subject Area	Courses Offered	Credits Required	Notes
Humanities: History, Literature, Theology	Honors Humane Letters III - Medieval Europe Honors Humane Letters IV - Early Modern Europe Honors Humane Letters V - America Honors Humane Letters VI - The Modern World *Humane Letters includes the study of history, literature, & theology.	8	Students receive 2 credits for each course
Classical Logic & Rhetoric	Classical Logic & Rhetoric I Classical Logic & Rhetoric II Classical Logic & Rhetoric III Classical Logic & Rhetoric IV (Senior Thesis)	4	1 credit for each class each year
Mathematics	Geometry Algebra I & II Honors Algebra I Pre-Calculus Calculus Business Math and Statistics	4
Natural Science	Biology Chemistry Physics Anatomy & Physiology Honors Chemistry II	4
Foreign Languages	Latin I, II, III, IV Greek I, II Honors Latin IV Honors Latin V *Courses prior to 2017-2018 are listed on transcripts according to the original Latin scope and sequence.	3	A minimum of 3 credits in the same language is required. Three to four credits in the same language is encouraged.
Arts & Electives	Selections include: Studio Art I,II; Advanced Studio Art I,II; Honors Studio Art & Portfolio Development; Science & Religion; Directed Study: Science; Life Skills; Faith & Culture; Editorial Board; Concert Choir; Creative Writing; Acting & Public Speaking; Technical Theater; Theater Performance; Principles of Journalism; Competitive Speech Performance, The H Magazine Staff	2	1/4 credit for each class; 1 Visual Art elective and 1 Performance Art elective are required * Students are required to take electives through their junior year.
Physical Education & Health	General Physical and Health Education Strength and Conditioning *Pass/Fail Course	1	1/4 credit for each class One season of JV or Varsity sports satisfies a 1/4 credit requirement
Community Service		100 hours
	Total	26 credits plus 100 hours of community service

Due to the transition from the semester system to the trimester system and the integration of humanities courses, credits awarded for Classical Logic & Rhetoric and Electives will vary according to when students matriculated at Habersham. This variance will not affect student qualification for graduation.*